THE WRIGHTS OF COLONIAL CONNECTICUT

The majority of early Wright families in Connecticut were descended from four immigrant ancestors. It appears that these four, plus the other Wright immigrants, were born in England. But there is varied opinion as to where in England each called home. It is not the point of this study to address their English origins.

The first of the four major families was headed by Thomas. These Wrights settled along the Connecticut River near Wethersfield. Since this was in the heart of the colony the spread of his descendents largely remained in Connecticut for several generations. A second sizeable group of Wrights descended from Abel, who settled in the vicinity of Springfield, Massacheusetts, which at that time was considered part of the Connecticut Colony. The settlers along the Connecticut River and those of Long Island had migrated from the Massachusetts Bay Colony and were subordinate to that colony. The third of these large Wright families had as their immigrant ancestor Samuel of Northampton. The last of the four was the family of Benjamin, whose descendants settled around Saybrook and Killingworth, near the coast.

Other smaller Wright families also settled in Connecticut during the colonial period. Some have been identified with large families in eastern Massachusetts. Others may have descended from one of the above but clear evidence has not been found. The Wrights of Durham, CT, descending from James, seem to fit in with the Benjamin line of Saybrook but only on conjecture. Therefore, the Durham Wrights and other "unconnected" families are presented separately.

Members of each family have been assigned from the best information available. Not only were "primary" sources used but reliance was made on listings by other researchers.These previous studies were not accepted without checking independent sources from the Colonial records. Where obvious discrepancies were recognized, corrections were made. Thus, all the information presented doesn't necessarily agree with previous genealogies. Undoubtedly, some errors have been included. Corrections and additions are solicited and will be greatfully considered.

In this work effort was made to bring the families forward in time from the immigrant to the end of the colonial period. No serious attempt was made to determine either earlier ancestry nor descendents after about 1800. Nevertheless, some lines are more complete than others. This simply reflects the relative ease that developed in search for information.

Since the data in this compilation consists of input from hundreds of references, no attempt is made to document each item. For the most part, every piece of evidence was accepted without regard for whether it came from primary or secondary sources, since access to most original records was too difficult. In any case, each item was evaluated and assembled in a manner deemed most likely to be accurate.

The bulk of the data is presented in the form of outline genealogy charts, which show family relationships more clearly than generation groupings. This outline form also makes the information compatible with computer data management. The Ashton -Tate dBase II (Reg. TM) program was used to organize, revise, incorporate, and index information.

A brief introductory text to each family offers highlights that reflect supplementary information gleaned from various sources. In addition, probate records are abstracted for many of the members of each family group. A separate chapter lists military records. An Appendix is added which gives information relative to the 1790 Census for Wright/Write/Right listings.

THOMAS WRIGHT OF WETHERSFIELD, CT

Thomas Wright emmigrated from England in 1635, arriving on the " SUSAN AND ELLEN ". First settling in Massachusetts and serving on the Court of Assistants, he moved to Wethersfield in 1639. His home was on High St. and he owned nearly all of the Great Island in the Connecticut River. This island was also known as Wright's Island. Thomas and his sons received grants in Naubuck Farms (each three miles long, measuring east from the river). Thomas was Deputy to the General Court of Connecticut in 1643. At various times, he served as Commisioner of Town Lines, Selectman, and Constable for Wethersfield. He served as Court Juryman in Hartford.

It is suggested Thomas was baptized 19 Nov 1610 at Kelvedon Hatch, Essex, England, and believed that he married 14 Jun 1630 at the Kelvedon Church to Margaret Butler, daughter of Richard and Alice. Margaret was baptized 27 Jan 1612 in Kelvedon. She probably died about 1645 in Wethersfield. In 1647 Thomas married the widow, Margaret Elson, whose husband, John, had been killed by Indians in the Wethersfield Massacre of 1637. This colonial woman had previously been widowed by the death of Hugh Hilliard. Margaret and Hugh had three children: Benjamin, John, and Job Hilliard but there is no evidence of children by John or Thomas. Thomas Wright died at Glastonbury in 1670.

Thomas had five known children. Thomas, Jr. was born 13 Aug 1630 and baptized 10 Apr 1631 (Kelvedon, Eng.). In 1654 he was elected Freeman at Wethersfield. This son Thomas married in 1657 to Elizabeth, daughter of Lieutenant William Chittenden. He fought in King Phillip's War of 1670, and died in 1683. James was baptized 19 Dec 1632, elected Freeman 1654, married about 1657 to Mary _____ (she died 1659, possibly in childbirth) and secondly in 1660 to Dorcas Weed, daughter of Jonas, a resident of Stamford. She was the mother of his children. James and Dorcas lived for many years on the Great Island at Wethersfield/Glastonbury but moved and became members of the Middletown Society in 1690. Both died in Middletown -- Dorcas in 1692 and James in 1705. Samuel was baptized 27 Oct 1634, Kelvedon, selected Freeman of CT 1657 and married in 1659 to Mary Butler, daughter of Deacon Richard and his wife, Elizabeth Bigelow, of Hartford. Samuel and Mary lived in Wethersfield and had seven children. He was an Ensign in the Militia and was elected Selectman in 1671. Both of their sons, Samuel and David, were Sergants in the Militia. Several of their descendants were sea-captains. Notably, grandson Samuel Jr. captained the sloop "ROCKY HILL", which served the trade between New England and the Barbados, West Indies. He died at sea in 1732. A second-great grandson John captained the sloop "FREEDOM" in the Revolutionary War. Thomas and Margaret's daughter, Lydia, was also baptized 27 Oct 1634, Kelvedon. She married Joseph Smith, son of Richard and Rebecca Boswell about 1655. After Joseph died in August of 1673, she married William Harris. She was alive in 1674.

The fourth child of Thomas and Margaret was a son, Joseph, who was baptized 5 March 1639 in Kelvedon Hatch. It appears that Margaret and her children were back in England at that time. Joseph married Mary Stoddard at Wethersfield in 1663. They had seven children. Their first, a son Joseph, moved to Colchester, CT. He had children involved in two ill-fated organizations -- The New London Society and The Susquehanna Company. These were land speculation groups. Their second son, Thomas, stayed on Wright's Island and became a deacon of the Wethersfield Church. His son, Ebenezer, graduated with the Class of 1724 from Yale and was a Minister in Stamford. Ebenezer's son, Thomas, was the surveyer under Samuel Holland and William Faden, who mapped the Province of New York in 1779. He had moved to Whitestown N. Y. by 1790 and died in Rome N.Y. in 1811. A nephew of this Thomas Wright, Benjamin, was the surveyer of Western New York, Member of the State Legislature from Oneida County (1807/8), a Judge, and Chief Engineer on the Erie Canal Project.

ABEL WRIGHT OF SPRINGFIELD, MA

Abel Wright was born 1631, probably in England. He appeared in Springfield in 1655 as a young unmarried man. The Springfield and Hartford communities were closely allied and he soon met Martha, daughter of Samuel Kitcherel in Hartford. They were married on 1 Dec 1659. Abel and Martha had thirteen children, born from 1660 to 1687. Of these, five boys and five girls survived to have families of their own. Abel was a prominent man in the area. He was elected to the General Court in 1695 and in May 1696, was chosen to act with Deacon Burt on a petition from those on the west side of the river to establish their own Parish and obtain a Minister. At that time he was a Lieutenant in the local Militia.

Abel and Martha had lived together for nearly fifty years when tragedy occured. On July 26 1708 a band of rampaging Indians attacked their farmstead and Martha was scalped. She suffered from this terrible wound for three months before succumbing. Daughter-in-law, Hannah Wright, and her seven month old son, Henry, were killed in the same raid. Four years later another of Abel's grandsons, Benjamin, was killed by the natives. Abel died 29 October 1725. His tombstone records that he was 94 years of age, thus he was 24 when he came to Springfield and received three acres of land next to Round Hill.

Their first son, Joseph, was born in Springfield, 1660, and married Sarah Osburne, daughter of James and Joyce. Of his sons only Joseph Jr. lived to marry and have children. This line stayed in the Springfield area for several generations.

Second son, Abel Jr., married Rebecca Terry, daughter of Samuel and Anna. In the late 1690's they moved down into Connecticut, settling in Lebanon. This family spread in the Lebanon, Windham, Mansfield area. Their Tory sympathies led some to move into Canada.

Abel's third son, Benjamin, married Mary Chapin, daughter of Henry and Bethia. This line did not move far from Springfield for several generations, settling in Brimfield, Wilbraham, Northampton, and Granby, which was across the state line in Connecticut.

The fourth son to live to maturity was Henry 2nd. (A previously named Henry had died as an infant). Henry 2nd married three times -- first to Hannah Bliss, daughter of John and Patience. This unfortunate young woman was captured in one of the frequent Indian attacks of that period. She was scalped and died as a result, along with her infant son, Henry. The father chose as his second spouse Sarah Root, daughter of Thomas and Mary. Finally, he took to wife, Elizabeth. Henry 2nd had three sons who married. These were Moses, Stephen, and Caleb.

Abel's fifth son to survive and marry was Samuel, who joined his brother, Abel Jr., in Lebanon, Connecticut by 1702. (Henry 2nd also lived in Lebanon briefly but did not settle there). Samuel married Mary Case, daughter of Ebenezer and Patience.

Besides the six listed above, Abel and Martha had Martha, b. 29Nov1662 in Springfield, who married Thomas Morley 8Dec1681; Hannah, b. 28Jul1669, who married Joseph Sexton 20Nov1690; Sarah, b. 8May1673, who married Thomas Chapin 15Feb1694; Mary, b. 9Mar1676, married Nathaniel Bliss 3Feb1697; Elizabeth, b. 18Aug1682 d. 17Jul1683; John, b. 21Apr1685 d. 11May1685, and Elizabeth again b. 22Aug1687, who married Ebenezer Dewey 8Nov1709.

As mentioned above, Abel appeared in Springfield unmarried. This was not a status acceptable to these early Connecticut villages. A single man had to be "sponsored" in some way by an established family, as a servant, apprentice or member, such as a relative. Thomas Stebbins had married a Hannah Wright in November 1645 in Springfield. If Hannah was not a widow, she would likely have been born about 1625. She may have been Abel's sister.

SAMUEL WRIGHT OF NORTHAMPTON, MASSACHUSETTS

Undoubtedly, Samuel Wright was born in England. It is suggested that he was the son of Nathaniel and Lydia [James] Wright, and was baptized 17 Jan 1615 in Kelvedon Hatch, Essex. If so he would not have been an infant at baptism, since he probably married about 1630. His wife was named Margaret but her family name and dates of birth or marriage have not been determined. Samuel Jr. is shown on the Kelvedon Hatch parish records as baptized 10 Mar 1632. The next three children were girls: Hester, Lydia and Margaret. Since all three married within about a year (1652-4), they may well have been triplets, born in 1634. The next was Mary, born about 1636.

Samuel, Margaret and family immigrated to the Bay Colony in 1638 and shortly moved to Springfield. It was there that son James was baptized in 1639. In 1642 Samuel & Margaret had Judah and, lastly, in September of 1644 daughter, Helped, was born. Helped was mentioned in her mother's will but no other record of her was located.

Samuel became a Freeman of Springfield on 13 April 1648. He was a deacon of the church and was appointed by the town (since it was an ecclesiastical society) to fill-in as tempory pastor after a squabble sent the first minister away in 1653. This dissension induced several families, including the Samuel Wrights, to move away from Springfield in early 1654 and form the Northampton Society. Samuel was probably not a farmer. In order to have served in the pulpit, he must have been learned and also have had some university training. He may even have been ordained.

Although Samuel owned land in many different places, no single plot was larger than 8 acres. His home lot was only two acres. The total amounted to about 30 acres in scattered small lots. He died "sitting in his chair" on 17 October 1665. His wife Margaret outlived him nearly sixteen years, dying 24 July 1681 in Northampton.

Many of Samuel Wright's descendants had notable military careers. His son, Sergeant Samuel, was killed fighting Indians at the Battle of Bloody Brook in 1675. In this same battle Samuel III was wounded. Grandson, Benjamin, became a Captain in the Militia and was a famous Indian fighter. This captain's son Benjamin was also a Captain in the Militia, while another son, Remembrance, was also a noted indian fighter. Many from this family served in the Revolutionary War.

BENJAMIN OF GUILFORD

Benjamin Wright was noted in the records of Guilford as early as 1649. He was probably born about 1620 and has been claimed to have been from Bolton, England. He married Jane Meigs, daughter of John, about 1640. Benjamin and Jane had six or seven children, who survived to be mentioned in public records. The uncertainty involves the daughter, mentioned as the wife of Peter Talmadge. Since no Peter Talmadge seems to have existed in the colonial records, it is possible that it is merely a misreading of Tallman. Three of their children were sons: Benjamin, James and Joseph. The others were daughters: Jane, Elizabeth and Anna, plus the unknown named Talmadge. Jane married Joseph Hand in 1664 at Guilford. Elizabeth married Edward Lee in 1676 at Saybrook and Anna was twice married -- first to John Walstone and secondly, to Dr. Peter Tallman.

Benjamin and Jane are shown in the records of Saybrook by 1675 and they died in Killingworth. It is unlikely that they moved; the town designations (and political boundaries) changed over the years. Their son Benjamin does not seem to have married, since there is no known family nor record of marriage. He is probably the one who purchased land in Wethersfield in 1660/1. It adjoined land of Thomas Wright and others. There is no known connection between the two Wright families.

Benjamin's Wright progeny seems to derive from James and Joseph. Descendants of James moved to Greene County, New York. Others went to Vermont and New Hampshire.

JAMES OF DURHAM, CT.

James Wright, who spent most of his life as a resident of Durham, Connecticut was not an original proprietor of Durham. He apparently had come from Milford, since he married Hannah Sanford there about 1698. They had their first several children baptized there. Although he was not listed as an original patentee or proprietor in the Durham Patent, signed by Connecticut Governor Saltonstall in 1708, his father-in-law, Samuel Sanford, and future father-in-law, Samuel Camp, (both from Milford) were. Nevertheless, in 1707 James Wright and Caleb Steward were named as the Durham Committee to work with the Guilford Committee for the purpose of running a boundary line between these two towns. Since his daughter, Mary, was baptized 1707 in Milford, James was probably a resident of Milford at that time. It might be that he was chosen because of a knowledge of surveying. It is likely that his son John was born and baptized about 1709/10 in Milford, although no record has been located. James and Hannah had moved to Durham by 1713, since their sixth child, Joseph, was baptized there. It appears that the father was not baptized into the Durham Church until 1733 "and by baptism admitted into full Communion". Normally, children of such people could not be baptized until the parents were in "full Communion" so his wife, Hannah, must have been "a member in good standing".

The ancestry of James Wright has not been determined but he was probably born about 1673. Men at that time married at about age 25 and there is no indication that his marriage to Hannah about 1698 was a second marriage. The settlers of Milford had come from various parts of the Connecticut Colony, including Long Island, Northampton and Wethersfield besides areas such as Lynn, Mass. Thus, he could have been a member of any of the established Wright families or could have come directly from England.

CHAPTER VI

WRIGHTS FROM EASTERN MASSACHEUSETTS

THE WRIGHTS OF ASHFORD, CT

John Wright Jr. was born 1699 in Woburn, Mass., son of John and Lydia [Kendall] Wright and great grandson of John Wright of Woburn. He married Judeth Wyman at Woburn in 1725 and, shortly, moved to Ashford, Connecticut, where their first child, Judeth, was born in 1727. Several of John's brothers and sisters also moved to Ashford. These included David, who married Abiel Trescott in Ashford, Nathan, who married Dorothy, and Lydia, who married Edward Beebe.

Since their grandfather had served in King Phillip's War of 1676, it is possible that the Ashford land in Connecticut had been given for that service. Many of this family later moved to New Hampshire. They are shown on the 1790 Census for Hanover in Grafton County, New Hampshire.

JOHN WRIGHT (MIDDLE HADDAM) FROM BARNSTABLE, MA

John Wright of Middle Haddam, Connecticut was born in 1711 at Plympton, Mass., son of John and Mary [Lucas] Wright. He was a descendant of William, the Pilgrim, and of, at least, one Mayflower line. John married Mary Coomer (Comer?) at Kingston, Mass. in 1736. He served in the French and Indian War under Colonel Henry Champion. Mary Coomer was the daughter of William, having been born in 1712. Her father was born at Boston in 1678 to John and Ellener Comer.

CHAPTER VII

WRIGHTS FROM LONG ISLAND

Just as the early settlements in western Massacheusetts, such as Springfield and Northampton, were considered part of the Connecticut Colony, which itself was a subsection of the Massacheusetts group, the English settlements of Long Island were considered related to the Connecticut settlements. The nearness of the Connecticut shore led to close commercial and social contacts, with families moving back and forth. With the outbreak of the Revolution these ties became even stronger. Long Island was rural farmland, while the coast housed fishermen. The city of New York had much closer interests in England. The rural and fishing populations tended to be rebelious, while the city people were more apt to be Tories. When Washington was chased from the Island many of the settlers fled to Connecticut.

Four Wright men were part of a religous dissenter family, who left England. It is believed they were sons of John and Anne [Beaupre] Wright or Nicholas and Margaret [Nelson] Wright of Norfolk, England. After emmigrating in 1635 they lived in Saugus in the Plymouth Colony for a while and then migrated further, since they had strong non-conformist religous ideas. Peter, particularly, was a Quaker. He settled in Oyster Bay, since it was in the Dutch Sphere of government and such beliefs were tolerated. Anthony did not have a family. It is presumed from his Will that he never married. Nicholas was a surveyor and, although he settled in Oyster Bay, his family did not stay long. Some moved to Richmond, some to New York City, and others to Westchester, NY. None have been identified in Connecticut. George moved from Plymouth to Rehobath, Rhode Island and then on to Flushing, Long Island. His grandson, George, moved to Hartford, Connecticut and married there.

MISCELLANEOUS FAMILIES

ANTHONY WRIGHT OF HARTFORD, CT

Anthony Wright was the brother of Thomas Wright of Wethersfield. There are few records concerning him. He is listed as a Trooper and may not have stayed long. He is recorded as marrying Mary Treat, widow of Mattias Treat. There is no record of any children. His listing is included at the end of Thomas of Wethersfield, along with his sister, Anna.

JAMES WRIGHT OF LITCHFIELD

James Wright of Litchfield is reported to have been born 1740 in England. He enlisted 17Apr1758 in Westchester Co. NY. He married Elizabeth Lee at Litchfield CT in 1768. Their children were born in there. James moved his family to the Western Reserve in Ohio after the Revolutionary War, probably having received a land grant there for military service.

THOMAS WRIGHT OF GUILFORD

Thomas Wright, who was probably born about 1645, married Sarah Benton at Guilford in 1673. They had five children born there between 1675 and 1688. Two were boys, Daniel and Abel, but, since both died before marrying, produced no Wright progeny. At least two of the girls married. Thomas and Sarah died within about two weeks of each other, probably during an epidemic, in December 1692.

SAMUEL WRIGHT OF EAST HADDAM

Samuel Wright was probably born between 1710 and 1720 but his origins are unknown. Martha Knowles was born at Eastham, Massachusetts in 1614. She married John Shaw in 1727 and had three children: George about 1730, Martha about 1732, and John born 1734. John Shaw Jr. moved to Willbraham Mass. before 1757 and on to Cincinnati Ohio in the early 1790's. John, the father of these children, died in East Haddam in 1744 and Martha married Samuel Wright in December of the same year at East Haddam. Samuel died in December 1754 and Martha a few days later, probably during an epidemic.

Samuel and Martha's first child was Jonathan, who moved to Litchfield Conn. after service in the Revolution, as did many other Connecticut men who had served. He spent the rest of his life there and received a pension for his service.

HENRY OF WINDSOR, CONNECTICUT

Henry Wright of Windsor, Connecticut had three births recorded to his wife, Lois, between 1748 and 1752. Also they were probably the parents of Abel, who had births recorded in Windsor to his wife, Jerusha, between 1768 and 1781. Abel was likely born about 1742 and Henry about 1715-1720. Members of this family seem to appear in Hampshire, Massachusetts on the 1800 census. Abel was in the Revolutionary War.

WILLIAM WRIGHT OF MIDDLETOWN. CT

William Wright of Middletown. Connecticut. married Lucia Richardson of Springfield in 1741 at Middletown. They had six children born in Middletown between 1742 and 1757. It is likely that William died in 1770 since his estate was probated then. Lucia remarried Asa Moore of Worcester.Massacheusetts in 1771. Little is known of William except that he was School Tax Collector for Middletown. His son Willard was in the Revolutionary War.

WILLIAM WRIGHT OF NEW LONDON

The Town of New London recorded the births of children to William Wright. an Indian. and Hagar, a Negress. These were William. Waite. Sarah. Samuel and Mary. The last married Robert Jacklin (Jarkin) in 1712. The record identifies Mary and Robert as Negroes.

JOSEPH WRIGHT OF WOODSTOCK. CT FROM ANDOVER. MA

There was a migration from Roxbury and Andover, Massacheusetts to Windham County. Connecticut about 1700. By the early 1720's twenty-one people from five Andover families had migrated there. These included Joseph Wright. whose grandfather was Walter Wright of Andover. Joseph had married Sarah Chandler 1712 in Ashley. Mass. She was related to John Chandler. a leading inhabitant of Woodstock. Records show their daughter. Mary, was born in Woodstock in August 1722.

CHAPTER IX

WRIGHT PROBATE RECORDS

Thomas Wright had his Estate probated in 1683. The record shows he had four children living at that time: Thomas 23, Mary 18, Hannah 13, and Lydia 11. The son received a double portion, as was the custom at the time. Thomas' brother Samuel Wright was appointed overseer of the estate.

Thomas, son of the above, left a Will which was probated in May 1711. His Estate was left to his sisters, Mary Belding and Lydia Crane, and to the family of his sister, Hannah Goodrich, who had died in 1698. He had no family of his own. This will was probably written before 1707, since Lydia was named a Beneficiary.

Margaret, widow of Thomas Wright, left a Will which mentioned her family by Hugh Hilliard/Hillier and also the three youngest children of her late husband, Thomas, suggesting they were not her children.

Thomas Wright, Sr. of Wethersfield had his Will taken 29 April 1670. It named his wife, Margaret, and divided his land among his sons Samuel, Joseph, and Thomas, Jr.

John Wright of Wethersfield died in March 1713/14. His Will mentioned his wife Marcy, brother Thomas, and children John and Mercy. The latter were mentioned in probate proceedings of Sept. 1718.

Jonas Wright of Middletown made his Will during his terminal illness, two days before death in 1709. He mentioned his wife, Olive, and only living child, Eunice. He also mentioned his brothers Daniel, Thomas, and James. Later records show Daniel of Glastonbury was appointed as guardian to Eunice.

Joseph Wright of Wethersfield dated his Will 14 Feb 1711/12. It was probated 17 Dec 1714. Named were his wife Mercy and eldest son Joseph of Colchester, who was given land on the Great Island. Also named were sons Thomas, John, Jonathan Benjamin, youngest son Nathaniel, eldest duaghter Mary Griswold, daughter Elizabeth Curtis, and youngest daughter Sarah Hand (deceased).

The Estate of Captain Samuel Wright of Wethersfield, who died 1732, was probated in favor of his wife Abigail, who remarried Noadiah Dickinson, and his children whose ages were listed. His brothers Ebenezer and Timothy were selected as guardians for some of the children. Their father had died at sea as captain of a merchant vessel.

Sgt. Samuel Wright of Wethersfield had a Will probated in 1734. His second wife, Abigail, and various members of his family were named: Samuel and Moses, children of his son Samuel, Cauly and Martha, children of his son Crafts, and his living sons Ebenezer, Timothy, and Stephen. Also mentioned were daughters Abigail Miller, Mabel Belding, Sarah Flowers (Joseph), and Mary Stanly. Land near that of his cousin Daniel Wright was given.

Thomas Wright of Chatham dated his Will less than a week before his death in Dec 1748. It mentioned his wife Elizabeth, eldest son Thomas, second son Jonas, youngest son Earl, and daughters Elizabeth, Mary, and Hepsibah. (His second child, John, had died shortly after birth).

Administration of James Wright's Estate was granted to Isaac Wright of Wethersfield on 17 March 1749.

Administration of the Estate of Thomas Wright of Chatham was granted in 1780 to his brother-in-law William Clark. An inventory was presented to Court in June of the same year. The distribution was made to Thomas' brothers and sisters, Jonas, Earl, Mary Clark, Hepsibah Bevin, and sister Elizabeth's husband Jonah Strickland.

In November 1792 Ezra Potter was named Administrator of the Estate of Jonas Wright of Chatham. Jonas had died in 1788. An Inventory, taken on 30 Nov 1792, showed the estate worth L23-1-9. The estate was declared insolvent and unable to settle the debts. The Widow's Dower was set aside along with her goods and a sale ordered. In his Will of 1788 Jonas had given his wife, Bathsheba, the north room on the lower floor of his house, half of the cellar, use of the oven, " full liberty to pass and repass as occasion may require", and five rods of land on the east side of the house.

Deed records for August 1793 show the sale of a piece of land lying in Chatham, containing 1/2 acre with dwelling house, formerly property of Jonas Wright, Dec'd, sold to Ezra Potter by Jonas and John Wright, Eliphalet Wood and Hannah, his wife, all of Chatham. At the same time Deliverance Cooper sold land formerly of Jonas Wright to Ezra. Jonas and John were sons of Jonas, the deceased, and Wood and Potter had married his daughters, Hannah and Lydia.

William Wright, the minor son of John Wright, was assigned to Thomas Wright as guardian in May 1806.

At about the same time in 1806 Ruth Wright and Invent Bradford Jr. were appointed administrators for the Estate of John Wright of Chatham.

[Since there is no evidence that John and Ruth of Middle Haddam (Chatham 2nd Society) had any children, while John and Abigail of Portland (Chatham 1st Society) had several, not all named, it is probable that the above William was son of John and Abigail. Thus it seems that the above two probates are not interrelated.

An Inventory of the Estate of Samuel Wright of East Haddam was presented to Court in January 1756. From the list of tools shown, it would appear that he was a cooper. Administration on the Estate of his wife Martha was assigned in 1756 to George Shaw of New London and Stephen Sparrow of East Haddam.

The will of Nathaniel Wright of Wethersfield was exhibited by his son Elizer in 1774. It named sons Elias, Elizer, Nathaniel, and Gideon and daughters Lucy Butler and Martha Butler.

The Estate of Levi Wright was probated in 1776. His widow, Abigail, and young children are mentioned. (Levi died in the Revolution).

Ebenezer Wright of Bolton had probate filed in 1777. Administration was granted to Thomas Pittman. A full inventory was presented to Court. [This was probably the Sgt. Wright of Bolton listed on the Soldier's Monument in Milford].

James Wright of Wethersfeld had an inventory presented to court in 1773.

The will of Elisha Wright of Wethersfield was filed in court in 1775 by his brother Josiah Wright. The will listed his wife, Mary, sisters Anna Clark of Woodbury, Mary Brattle of Pittsfield, MS. and Hannah Hurlburt, dec'd., and brothers Josiah, Elizer of Canaan, David of New Canaan, and Thomas, dec'd. A distribution was ordered on Dec. 15, 1775.

On March 26, 1783 the minor children of Thomas Wright, John, age 20, Michael 17, Sarah 15, Esther 13, and Lydia 10, all chose their mother, Esther, to be their guardian. A distribution of the estate was ordered. It was mentioned that Stephen Wright was dwelling in the house.

The Estate of Capt. John Wright of Wethersfield was declared insolvent Oct. 27, 1786 and his widow Martha was ordered to sell land. An inventory was presented later and the Widow's Dower set out before distribution. Mentioned were Sarah Robbin, alias Wright, and John's son, Crafts.

The estate of John Wright of Chatham was probated in 1806. His wife was given an acre with house in East Hartford and a piece of land in Chatham was given to Benjamin Strong. The rest of the land property consisting of several acres and a building near the Middle Haddam meeting house constituted the Estate administered by John's widow, Ruth. Personal effects were bequeathed to various people including his brother William, Abner Stocking, Simon Smith, Walter Clark, Thomas Selden and Gideon Arnold.

William Wright was appointed administrator for the Estate of John Wright of Chatham in 1780. The distribution was made to children, William, Ezekiel, and Urania Smith (Mrs. Thomas) in April 1780.

The estate of William Wright of Chatham (Middle Haddam) was probated in 1815 and appealed in 1816 by Anna Higgins and Annah David, two of his daughters. The proceedings record these two plus Caty Young and William, Nymphus, Noah, John, and Polly Wright, who were also children of the deceased William. The widow Ann is also mentioned but not daughter Urania, who probably died young.

The will of Ruth Wright (Mrs. John of Middle Haddam) lists her sister Rebecca Bradford (nee Dart), daughters of her brother Thomas Dart, sons of her sister Bradford, daughters of Vienna Talcott (nee Bradford) and daughters of her brother Joseph Dart. (Ruth was divorced from Jesse Higgins, Jr. when she married Wright).

The Estate of Noah Wright went to his brother Nymphus.

The Will of David Wright of Wethersfield was exhibited in Court by his sons Elisha and Josiah in October 1752. It mentioned eldest son David, sons Elijah, Elizur of Canaan, Elisha, Thomas, Josiah, daughters Anna Clark and Mary Brattle and brother-in-law Daniel Boardman, deceased.

The Will of David Wright of Weathersfield was exhibited in Court by his sons Elisha and Josiah in October 1752. It mentioned eldest son David, sons Elijah, Elizur of Caanan, Elisha, Thomas, Josiah, daughters Anna Clark and Mary Brattle and brother-in-law Daniel Boardman, deceased.

The Will of Benjamin Wright of Weathersfield was dated 25 September 1753, about a week before he died. It was probated in November. Mentioned are his wife, Hannah, and children Justus, Benjamin, Abigail Russell, Hannah Wright, and Lydia Goodrich.

The Will of Thomas Wright of Wethersfield was dated 18 January 1760. It named Grandson Thomas, son of his son Ebenezer, deceased, late of Stamford. Also Joseph Allen, Hannah, Ebenezer and Prudence Wells --- all children of his son, Ebenezer. The Inventory of the Estate suggests Thomas was a cooper.

Daniel Wright 3rd wrote his Will 26 September 1760 at an Army camp near Ontario. He mentioned his father, Daniel, brothers Elihu, James, Nehemiah, and Simeon, and sisters Eunice, Mindwell, and Rachel.

Elihu Wright of Glassenbury dated his Will 18 May 1762, mentioning his wife Abigail, and brothers James and Simeon. Unfortunately, he had been gone on military service so long he didn't know whether he had an heir or not.

The Will of Timothy Wright, written 22 November 1758, was probated in 1763. His belongings went to his wife, Sarah, and children Crafts, Martha, Prudence, Sarah, Elijah, Ebenezer and Levi. The included farm tools and many books on religion.

July 1740. It mentioned his wife Anne, sons Judah, daughters Thankful, Elizabeth, Mary, and Jane besides granddaughter Damaris and grandsons Jonathan and Josiah Wright.

The Last Will and Testament of Samuel Wright of Northampton was dated the 10th day of the 9th month 1663. It names his wife Margaret and children Samuel, James, Judah, Mary (Marcy), Margaret, Hester and Lydia. An Inventory of the Estate was presented to Court in 1665. An agreement among the children was recorded in the Probate Records in 1680.

Elizabeth, the Relict of Samuel Wright of Northampton, exhibited an Inventory of the Estate of her late husband, who died Intestate. The widow and Samuel Wright, eldest son of the deceased, were named Administrators. The Inventory was dated 30 March 1675 and was made by David Burt, Judah Wright, and Joseph Parsons.

The Will of Margaret, widow of Samuel Wright Sr., of Northampton was made 22 September 1680. She named her son James, daughter Helped, son-in-law Samuel Marsh, and daughters Marcy, Hester, Lydia, and Margaret.

The Estate of Joseph Wright of Northampton was distributed 7 March 1705/6 to Ruth Wright, "relict now of Samuel Strong", Joseph Wright (eldest son) "now age 18 yrs. 1mos. 4 days", Samuel Wright (second son), Benoni Wright (third son), and Ruth Wright (daughter).

An Inventory of the Estate of Benoni Wright of Hatfield Mass. was presented in Court September 2, 1702 by his relict, Rebecca.

On 18 March 1722/3 a Letter of Guardianship was granted to Benjamin Wright of Northfield, guardian to William, Mary, Experience, all minor children of Benjamin and his second wife Mary (Barker) Wright. Probate on James Barker in March 1722/3 mentions his daughter Mary Wright (alias Barker), deceased, and her three children William, Mary, and Experience. Captain Benjamin Wright was mentioned as the father of these children.

In 1723 a settlement was recorded among Benjamin (eldest son), Henry (second son), and Mary WRight, all of Springfield Mass. These were children of Benjamin Wright.

A Letter of Administration on the Estate of Eldad Wright was granted to his father Elizur and brother Nehemiah on 11 November 1724.

Henry Bliss, Sarah, wife of Samuel Bliss, Abigail, deceased wife of Josiah Webster, Rhoda, late wife of Josiah Huntington, and Irena, deceased wife of David Curtis. Also named were sons Joseph, Simon and Jerome Loomis plus son Elijah Sprague. She had married Ephraim Wright 1775 in Lebanon.

Abigail Wright of Coventry, widow of Roswell Wright had her estate probated in 1850.

Administration of the Estate of Benjamin Wright of Springfield was given to "the Widow and Relict" Mary on 7 August 1705. Probate was not completed in January 1708 when an inventory was presented to court. At that time it was noted that Benjamin had died 24 December 1704 and his widow died 13 Janaury 1707/8. On 10 February 1707/8 Administration of the estate of Mary was granted to Joseph Wright and Henry Chapin.

Abel Wright Jr. of Lebanon CT on 10 Janaury 1743/4 made his last Will and died about a year later on 1 January 1745. He bequeathed to his wife, Rebecca, all of his "indoor" and "outdoor" moveables including tools, household stuff and debts receiveable. She was to receive all the improvement in the farm and the house to live in. His son Abel was to receive nothing since he had already been "given sufficient portion out of my estate". The same went for sons Ebenezer, Ephraim, and Benjamin and daughters Rebecca Lyman, Martha Holbrook, Jemmina Hutchison and Ann Buel. This document was signed with a poorly scratched A in the presense of Daniel, Sarah, and Nathaniel Holbrook. The Will was exhibited in Court on Sept 18th 1747. An inventory of Ensign Abel Wright's Estate was presented in 1749 and a receipt for payment from the estate was signed in November 1750 by his wife, Rebeccah, with her mark - R. This was witnessed by Abel's grandson Eliphalet and Sarah Wright.

Probate on the Estate of Jonathan Wright of Wallingford was heard in Court at New Haven on 5 April 1773. At that time John Johnson was bound as Administrator and Cornelius Brooks as Surety to make an Inventory of the estate. This was done on June 28th 1773. The Estate included 9 acres at Hogg Hill, deeded from Prudence Meriman, and 6 acres of land north of Durham Road. Among Jonathan's effects were a "Firelock", old sword, two powder horns, a shot mold, a shaving knife and a pigeon net. Among the expenses charged for determining the inventory was "5 days spent in finding and collecting Father Writ's moveable Estate". After comparing assets to outstanding debts the Commissioners concluded "the Estate being represented, Insolvent".

The Will of Daniel Wright of Durham was made 8 August 1782. Listed were his wife Deborah, daughter Remembrance, wife of Eliakim Strong, and sons Asher and Samuel Wright.

John Wright, age 10 years, of Coventry was assigned to Elijah Wright as guardian in 1817. John may have been son of John and Eunice [Loomis] Wright of Coventry.

CHAPTER X

MILITARY SERVICE

Training for military service was a natural part of early colonial life. Participation in the militia wasn't voluntary. It was a required aspect of New England male society. Failure to train was punishable in Court. Every ablebodied male between 16 and 60 was required to be an active member of a training company or "train band". They were to receive 10 days of military training annually. In May of 1650 Ludlow's Code was adopted. This exempted magistrates and church officers. Every man above sixteen was to possess a good musket and ammunition, train 6 times yearly and be subject to a grand review annually. The soldiers chose their own officers, subject to confirmation of the Court.

In most cases the leaders of these groups were men who had battlefield experience. Every town had a committee, which was charged with supplying men for service when called upon by the Crown authority in the colonies. Even the Pilgrims took with them a trained military officer to handle matters of defense. In the earliest skirmishes with the indians these affairs were strictly a local matter. When there was a major uprising the involvement of the colonists was widespread. The militia was called for the expedition of 1637, called "The Pequot War".

Service on active duty was required for only short periods of time, since these militia members were not "regulars". This active duty was not expected to last more than a few days and could not be longer than about fifteen days. Since the men were only paid small amounts for each day of service, their pay was minimal but the officers would be involved in every call and might be out for longer times. Thus, their compensation could be substatantial. Since the colonial treasuries could not handle the expense of these military operations, service was often paid in the form of land bounties. New land was being opened up continually, which the colonial governments were able to distribute. Large sections of Connecticut and Massachusetts were distributed as Bounty Lands. For example, in 1670 the tract that became Durham CT was largely assigned to officers for military service in the Pequot War. A royal proclamation was issued for the colonial governors to give grants of land for service in the French and Indian War. In 1780 the State of Connecticut granted Col. Henry Champion land in Litchfield. It is probable that much of Litchfield was granted for Revolutionary War service. Although movement of families occured for many reasons, one of the major inducements was the Land Grant for military service

Several Wrights from the area under consideration served in King Philips War of 1675-8. Men of the Northampton area fought indians in 1675 at Bloody Brook, where Samuel Wright died and his son, Samuel, was wounded. Sgt. Samuel was of Northfield. James of Northampton participated in the Falls Fight of 1675. Anthony Wright of Wethersfield saw service at that time.

Conscriptions were made for King William's War of 1689-97, Queen Anne's War of 1701-14, and King George's War of 1744-48. A sizeable number of Connecticut Wright's were involved during the French and Indian Wars of 1756-63. In 1757 William Pitt, Prime Minister of England, asked for 20,000 men to be raised in the colonies. These came from the militia units.

Many New England Wrights served in the Revolutionary War. Quite a number had previous military experience. Of the records available it is possible to recognize many who were members of the families under consideration. This is easier from the Connecticut listings but becomes more difficult in Massachusetts and other colonial records. Some had moved to distant places long before the Revolution and many, who had been born in Connecticut or Massachutsetts, had moved shortly before the war. During the upheaval caused by the conflict, great internal family splits were brought by divided loyalties, some of which were based on nothing more than strong conservatism and "betting on the wrong team". Many of the Tories were hounded out and in some cases their holdings confiscated. (In most cases these confiscations were either sold or simply turned over to Patriot members of the same family.) Since a lot of the original enlistment or conscription lists were lost or just not well kept, the lists are not nearly complete. Many men moved after the war and were able to apply for pensions years later at their new homes. Some even enlisted in other states. For example, Earl Wright, who had been born in Chatham and fought in the French and Indian War from Connecticut, served in the Revolution from New York.

Listed among the known military dead , during the Revolutionary War, are Cuff Wright - died 8/4/78, Elisha Wright - died 3/5/78, and Elizur - died 1781, all of Connecticut. In Milford there is a Soldier's Monument which lists 46 soldiers who died after being released from a British Prision Ship in January 1777. Among them are listed Thomas Wright of Simsbury and Sgt. Wright of Bolton. Many more died of diseases contracted in camp.

The revolutionary War pension list of 1818 shows the following Wright pensioners still living in Connecticut: Simeon, John, Benjamin, Major Joseph A., Daniel, Asher, Abraham, Charles, James (of the Frigate Warren), and Jeremiah. In New York : George, Cornelius, Benjamin, John, and John 3rd, all from Connecticut. The following Wrights, who had served from Mass. were living: In Vermont - Josiah, Asahel, Josiah 2nd, and Thomas; in New York - Silas, Aaron, Phineas, Joseph, Bazaliel, and Peter; in Maine - Daniel; and in Massachusetts - Henry, Joseph, Samuel (Ship Hagie), Peter, and Eldad. The Census of Pensioners of 1840 shows Abigail Wright, age 84 of Wethersfield, John Wright, age 78 of Clinton, and Asher Wright, 86, of Coventry Connecticut.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR SKETCHES

Jonathan Wright (1746-1836) was an Ensign, 1776, in the 2nd Connecticut Battalion James Wadsworth's Brigade, Colonel Fisher Gay's Regiment and , 1778, in Captain Gillett's Company. He fought on Long Island and at Fort Washington near New York City. He was born and died in Litchfield CT.

John Wright (ca.1742-1804) was a Private , 20 April 1775, in Captain Lubbeus Bell's Company of Minute-Men, who marched to Boston, and served 15 days. He was a resident of Granville, Mass.

John Wright of Norwich CT was in Militia Service and was taken prisoner by the British in a raid on Norwich in 1777. He later recieved a Western Lands Bounty from Connecticut.

John Wright 3rd (1759-aft.1822) of Saybrook enlisted 15 July 1775 under the command of Captain Edward Shipman and marched to Roxbury near Boston, where Colonel Charles Webb's Seventh Regiment was formed in General Sullivan's Brigade. Later he marched to Long Island and stayed until the Army under General Washington retreated to New York. He participated in the Christmas Day taking of the Hessians at Trenton, New Jersey (Dec 26,1776) and later took part in the battle at Princeton (Jan 3,1777). There he was involved in capturing about three hundred British prisoners.

John Wright, 1st (ca.1758-aft.1818) served one year (1776) under Colonel John Durkee and saw action at the Battles of Long Island and White Plains. He enlisted again in 1778 for three years in the 3rd Connecticut Regiment under Colonel Samuel Wyllys, serving the first year in Captain Thomas Abbey's Company. Then he transferred to the Light Infantry Company of Captain Champion for his second year. The third year saw him in Captain Jonathan Hart's Company. He was Discharged by Captain J. Stillwell, Commandant, at The Highlands opposite West Point in Jan. 1781. He fought in the Battles of Stony Point and Monmouth. This John probably was a son of Earl Wright of East Hartford. He obtained a pension in 1818, while residing at Unadilla in Otsego County New York.

Joseph Allyn Wright (1744-1818) was a Captain in command of the 2nd Company, 5th Regiment under Colonel Phillip Burr Bradley in 1777. He had served in 1775 and was still in the service in 1782. He received a bounty grant for his time, which apparently included the right to obtain some confiscated lands in Norwalk, Connecticut. He was a prominent public official after leaving the military and served as an enumerator for the Litchfield area in the Federal Census of 1800.

John Wright (ca.1756-ca.1798) of Chatham enlisted 14 Oct 1777 for the Term of the War. He was discharged 4 Nov 1781. He served as a Private in Captain John Warner's Company of Colonel Samuel Wyllys' 3rd Regiment. He was in White Plains July-August 1778. On 27 Sept 1778 he became sick two miles from camp and went on furlough Oct 30 for twenty days after recovering. Records show him on duty every month from June 1778 to Dec 1780. In January 1780 he was listed as " on command " at the lines and in June of the same year " on tha Baron Steuben's Guard". He undoubtedly spent the winter of 1777-78 with Washington at Valley Forge although there are no specific records. Company pay rolls show he received 2 Pounds per month in 1778. Late in 1779 he started receiving an additional 3 Pounds as a subsistance allowance. A Paymaster's account in January 1780 showed this amounted to an equivalent of 33 and 30/90 dollars for two months (Sept.& Oct. 1779).This accounting was signed personally by John Wright.
